

Job Description

Job Title: Draughtsperson

Department: Design Engineering

Reporting to: Engineering Manager
Reports to Engineering Manager, however day-to-day may be supervised by Lead Engineer when working on projects.

Key Objectives: The Draughtsperson will be responsible for undertaking work within a limited area with typical tasks being to design or modify components, may undertake basic technical calculations, draft reports or technical specifications using CAD systems within existing templates. Work will be outlined in general terms, but execution of allotted tasks may be unsupervised.

Responsibilities:

- Produce both 2D and 3D drawings within the designated project timescales
- Assist in the development of design standards
- Participate in training and personal development

Client Interaction

- Support client site visits

Quality Assurance

- Adhere to Company procedures, British Standards and ISO

Person Specification

Qualifications:

- BTEC, HNC (NVQ4) or minimum 5 years of experience mechanical, and hydraulic design within a manufacturing environment.

Experience & Knowledge:

- Should be mechanically biased
- Knowledge of British Standards for Engineering Draughting
- Fully conversant with AutoCAD, SolidWorks, Microsoft Office
- Ability to work unsupervised – self motivated

Desirable:

- Experience of pressure retaining components
- Oil and Gas Industry experience